

How to Report an Incident

Southern Methodist University

To report to police and pursue criminal charges

Students can report sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking to the police and pursue a criminal process. To reach SMU Police, call 214-768-3333 or pick up a blue-light phone on campus at any time of day or night.

Those who wish to anonymously provide information regarding suspicious or criminal activity to SMU Police may call 214-768-2TIP (2847) or submit information online at <https://www.smu.edu/BusinessFinance/Police/Contact/Tips>. The form may be submitted anonymously or with a name and contact information.

To report to SMU and pursue an internal grievance process

Students can report all forms of sexual misconduct, including sexual assault, to SMU's Title IX Coordinator and can pursue an SMU internal grievance process. To reach the SMU Title IX Coordinator, call 214-768-3601 or email accessequity@smu.edu.

To file a complaint of Title IX sexual harassment including all forms of sexual misconduct and sexual violence, please complete the Title IX Sexual Harassment Complaint Form.

To make a third-party report of Title IX sexual harassment, please complete the Title IX Sexual Harassment Third-Party Report Form.

<https://www.smu.edu/-/media/Site/sexualmisconduct/IAE-Title-IX-Sexual-Harassment-Third-Party-Report-Form.pdf?la=en>

The form can be emailed to accessequity@smu.edu; submitted in Perkins Administration Building, Room 204; or mailed to the SMU Title IX Coordinator, P.O. Box 750200, Dallas, TX 75275-0200.

SMU can assist victims in applying for a protective order, which tells a person to stay 500 feet from where the protected person lives or works. It instructs a person not to commit or threaten violence, or stalk the person applying for protection. Applications for protective orders are made at the Dallas County District Attorney's Office Family Violence Division at the Frank Crowley Courthouse, 133 N. Riverfront Blvd., 214-653-3528.
