

How to Report an Incident

Texas A&M International University

HOW TO REPORT

Reports can be made to a supervisor, the Title IX Coordinator, the Title IX Deputy Coordinator (contact info below), or by emailing TitleIX@tamiu.edu.

Lorissa M. Cortez, Director of Equal Opportunity & Diversity | Title IX Coordinator

5201 University Boulevard, Laredo, TX 78041

Killam Library Building, Room 159B

Phone: (956) 326-2857

Dr. Kevin Lindberg, Associate Provost | Title IX Deputy Coordinator

5201 University Boulevard, Laredo, TX 78041

Killam Library Building, Room 332B

Phone: (956) 326-2601

klindberg@tamiu.edu

Title IX Reports Can Also Be Made To:

Office of Civil Rights (Dallas Office)

U.S. Department of Education

1999 Bryan Street, Suite 1620

Dallas, TX 75201-6810

(214) 661-9600

Any member of the campus community or public who witnesses, is subjected to, or is informed about incidents of illegal discrimination, sexual harassment, and/or related retaliation involving faculty, staff, or students should contact the University's Title IX Coordinator: Lorissa M. Cortez, 5201

University Boulevard, Laredo, TX 78041, Killam Library, Room 159B, (956) 326-2857, TitleIX@tamiu.edu. Anonymous Title IX reports can be made via TAMIU's online reporting system called Report It. All Title IX complaints can also be filed with the Office of Civil Rights (Dallas Office), U.S. Department of Education, 1999 Bryan Street, Suite 1620, Dallas, TX 75201-6810, Phone: (214) 661-9600.

Inquiries regarding equal opportunity, disability services, or diversity should be directed to the University's Director of Equal Opportunity and Diversity: Lorissa M. Cortez, 5201 University Boulevard, Laredo, TX 78041, Killam Library, Room 159B, (956) 326-2857, lorissam.cortez@tamiu.edu.