

How to Report an Incident

Villanova University

Any person may report an incident of sexual misconduct. Complaints may be pursued through the criminal process and/or through the University grievance process consecutively or concurrently.

The University will respond to all reports in an integrated, consistent manner that treats each person with dignity and respect and will take prompt responsive action to end any reported sexual misconduct, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects.

ADDITIONAL CAMPUS RESOURCES OFFERING ASSISTANCE IN REPORTING:

Sexual Assault Resource Coordinator (SARC) | 484-343-6028 (24/7)

sarc@villanova.edu

A SARC can review the options available to a survivor of any form of sexual violence, including sexual assault, sexual exploitation, stalking, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, retaliation, incest, and statutory rape. A SARC can connect a student to a variety of resources, (medical care, reporting, counseling), and can accompany a student to campus and/or community services to ensure that he/she receives appropriate care and follow up information in the wake of sexual violence. If someone is not sure whom to talk to, connecting with a SARC is a good place to start. The SARC team also welcomes phone calls from friends seeking for information on how to support a friend or loved one following an incident of sexual violence. Although the University encourages a Complainant to talk with someone directly, the University does provide an anonymous on-line reporting option, www.villanova.ethicspoint.com and an anonymous phone reporting option at (855-236-1443). All anonymous reports of sexual misconduct submitted through these options will be referred to the Title IX Coordinator and will prompt an initial investigation. However, the University's ability to respond effectively may be limited by the level of information provided and/or the anonymity of the complaint.
